

Why Join MOAA National?

MOAA is the country's leading organization protecting the rights of military servicemembers and their families. Those who belong to MOAA not only lend their voices to a greater cause, but they also gain access to extensive benefits tailored to the needs of lifestyles of current, retired, and former military officers. MOAA's greatest mission is to improve the lives of those who serve and their families, achieved largely through tireless advocacy efforts taking place in our nation's capital. MOAA's experts in Washington are there to support legislation that benefits the military community and are equally vigilant when fighting to stop legislation that threatens our livelihood. The larger our numbers, the greater our voice. MOAA Membership is open to active duty, former, and retired commissioned and warrant officers of the uniformed services and their surviving spouses, including the National Guard and Reserve.

MOAA offers a wide range of personal and financial services exclusive to MOAA membership.

Financial Planning. MOAA has financial counselors experienced in the financial business; knowing how things work in financial firms. MOAA is not a financial services firm and it does not sell financial products or develop personalized financial plans. You get a financial planner whose only interest is your well-being as a MOAA member!

Transition Assistance. MOAA provides a wealth of military focused information, services, and resources for career transition. Whether you are transitioning to a civilian career from the military or moving from one career field to another, MOAA can help.

Educational Assistance. The MOAA Scholarship Fund provides interest free loans, scholarships and grants to students seeking their first undergraduate degree.
