Dates shown are Sun Radio but in order to give our listeners more choices the stations have the right to use the below listed programs on dates that fit their particular day, which will be close to the dates shown.

Date	Guest	Subject
10-01-2019	Michael Mc Daniel, Adjutant, Department of Florida, American Legion	Did you know that not all service members could join the American Legion? Simply serving was not enough. Congress set the membership criteria and limited it to certain times That is now for the most part gone away with the new Legion Act. BTW this also changes enrollment for the Sons of the AL and the Auxiliary. Tune in to hear how it works.
10-03-2019	Lois Mc Bride, Pres. Ruskin VFW Post 6287 & Sr Vice Cdr Ralph Reid	It is Veterans parade time again in Ruskin Florida. Tune in to hear how to participate in the parade and to learn of the various events surrounding the parade. This is one of the biggest and best events in south county. Hear how to participate as a marcher or a watcher.
10-08-2019	John Glynn, LtCdr USN Retired	One of the highlights of the social year in Hillsborough County has always been the November Military Ball. This year it will be renamed Veterans Ball and whether you served or not, you are invited.
10-10-2019	Jim Wendell, Commander Post 246 American Legion	Jim updates us on the American Legion-led Veterans Day program at the SCC Community Hall on November 11 th . The program will not be long, but it will be impactful. Tune in for details.
10-15-2019	Judge Michael Scionti, Hillsborough County Veterans Court	Judge Scionti is one of my favorite guests and his Veterans Court project continues to create huge benefits for our community. Tune in to hear how this court is different and how it saves lives and taxpayer dollars.
10-17-2019	Chad Chronister Sheriff Hillsborough County Florida	Our sheriff is deeply committed to helping veterans who come into contact with the law. Listen while he shares information on the new veterans section of the jail and how it is centered on helping the vet, in conjunction with other agencies, to return to a productive life.
10-22-2019	Michael Ball, Chmn, Military Affairs Committee, SouthShore Chamber of Commerce	Mike is recently retired from the US Navy after completing his assignment in CentCom at MacDill AFB. Mike talks about how the SouthShore Chamber is reaching out to retirees to help them ease their transition to civilian life among other Chamber outreach programs.
10-24-2019	Karen Blanchett, Clinic Director, Steven A. Cohen Military Family Clinic	Financier Steven A Cohen has donated almost $300 million to fund family mental health clinics for our military personnel and their dependents. Not all veterans are eligible for VA benefits and there are few benefits for families under the VA program. Mr. Cohen's son who at Aspire Health Partners	is a vet brought this problem to his attention and the rest is history. Listen in to hear how, regardless of income, a family can be helped.

10-29-2019	Charlie Brown, President Valencia Lakes Military Veterans Club, Inc. (VLMVC)	Many communities are forming military clubs, which serve the purpose of providing a social outlet and for most of them, there is a strong service component. On this broadcast hear what the president of the Valencia Lakes Military Veterans Club has to say about what they do and how they plan to help with transportation to the new SOHI clinic In Riverview.
10-31-2019	Juan Gonzalez, PhD. Professor at University of the Incarnate Word	Dr. Gonzalez is a recognized expert in the field of military transition planning and implementation. He served in the Air Force for ten years as a behavioral analyst, military instructor, and intelligence officer. He earned his Ph.D. in Industrial/Organizational Psychology from Capella University. He points out that fresh starts are important even for those who have been out of the military for some time. Our family, for instance, has grandchildren getting out of the military and it is important for us to understand the problems they face in adjusting.

We understand our listeners are busy causing them to miss a show. We will replay some of our shows for their convenience. Shows may be preempted to accommodate late breaking or time-sensitive information.
